

Guidebook 2: Robert's Rules of Order Made Easy

Table of Contents

INTRODUCTION	iii
ABOUT THIS GUIDEBOOK	v
WHAT IS AN AGRICULTURAL COOPERATIVE	vii
ROBERT'S RULES OF ORDER	1
Section 1 Board Meeting.....	1
(a) Example Board Meeting Agenda.....	1
(b) Minutes of Board Meetings	2
(c) The Executive and Closed Board Session	3
Section 2 The Annual Member Meeting.....	4
Section 3 Member Communications.....	5
Section 4 Using Robert's Rules of Order to Conduct Board and Member Meetings.....	6
(a) What is Parliamentary Procedure?	6
(b) Principles of Parliamentary Procedure.....	7
(c) Quorum of Members	7
(d) Characteristics of an Ideal Chairperson	8
(e) When is it proper for the Chairperson to Enter into Debate/Discussion or Vote?	9
Section 5 Voting Practices for Those Eligible to Vote	9
(a) Quorum	9
(b) Majority.....	9
(c) Abstention Votes – Do They Count?.....	9
Section 6 General Guidelines for Using RRO	10
(a) Motions	10
(b) Resolutions	10
(c) Improper Phrases.....	11
(d) Point-of-Order.....	12

(e) Obtaining the Floor.....	12
(f) Asking to Speak to Make a Motion.....	12
(g) Speaking More than Once.....	13
(h) Relevancy of Discussion	13
(i) Decorum in Discussion	13
(j) Conduct During Discussion	13
Section 7 The Fundamental Motions Used During Board and Member Meetings	14
(a) The Steps in Making a Motion	14
(b) How to Present a Motion	14
(c) The Fundamental Motions.....	15
(1) To State the Motion.....	15
(2) To Table the Motion (To Defer/Postpone an Action) ..	15
(3) To Stop Discussion and Vote	16
(4) To Refer the Issue/Matter to a Committee.....	16
(5) To Amend the Motion (to Modify a Motion)	17
(6) To Amend the Amendment	17
(7) To Adjourn the Meeting (to Close a Meeting).....	17
Appendix A: The Fundamental Motions of Robert’s Rules of Order	19