

THE CEO AND BOARD TRUSTED ALLY®

HARVEY A. MEIER, Ph.D., CMC®

Harvey A. Meier, Ph.D., CMC®

Dr. Harvey A. Meier is an advisor and confidant to the Boards of Directors of privately held food processing, agribusiness, manufacturing, consumer product goods, service companies, and non-profit organizations of all types and sizes. He is also an author and a public speaker on cutting-edge board governance and executive leadership topics.

Boards of Directors retain Harvey for advice, counsel, and second opinions to reinforce making the right decisions and judgment calls. His guidance is highly respected because of his wisdom, insight, foresight, and good judgment.

Clients describe Harvey as their Trusted Ally who always does what is in their best interest and conducts himself with impeccable ethics. His calm demeanor, direct communication, credibility and trusted advice, delivery style, creative thinking, and dedication have resulted in him being retained by many clients for nearly five decades.

He is the author of the D'Artagnan Way—A Tale of Purpose, Passion, and Team Commitment and a series of guidebooks on Board Governance Best Practices. He specializes in strengthening the board and CEO partnership with director training, resolving conflict, and creating strategic initiatives. He also assists boards in navigating the process of identifying and selecting CEOs, including evaluating their annual performance.

More specific information about Harvey can be found at www.harveymeier.com, harvey@harveymeier.com, 509.458.3210

What Boards Say About Working with Me:

“You showed us how to forge a solid partnership with our CEO, which we know is critical for long-term success in our company.”

“We find great value in talking to you in complete candor and confidence.”

“We find retaining you for a second opinion valuable for making decisions and good judgment calls.”

“You have a strong understanding of best practices in board governance that guides your advice to be productive and world-class.”